

A MOMENT OF NOSTALGIA- BIDDING ADIEU

- In an emotionally surcharged atmosphere, JMV family bid an adieu to the outgoing batch of class XII on 29 December 2018.
- Students were welcomed with a traditional tilak and flowers. The programme began with the recitation of Namokar Mahamantra followed by thought provoking speech by Mr Yogesh Sharma ,Senior Incharge and a cultural extravaganza which led to a recollection of memories as students looked back at the time they spent in the Vidyalaya.
- A spate of dance,music and laughter mocked the occasion as the hosts impressed all with the showcasing of their vast repository of skills.
- Students were presented mementoes and best wishes were conveyed for the board examination. The outgoing batch also expressed their indebtedness to the Principal and teachers for inculcating values and virtues in them.
- Summing up the day was great, filled with nostalgia, fun and excitement.
