4. Please ensure your child's wholehearted involvement in completion of the holidays assignments. Kindly do not outsource the projects/assignments done by professionals.
5. Parents who have not submitted the medical feedback form of their ward, are once again requested to submit the same in the Vidyalaya at the earliest as it would help us to take better care of your ward in case of emergency.
6. Parents are requested to submit the Aadhar Card (with corrections, if any) of their ward in the Vidyalaya latest by 06.07.2018 as it is compulsory as per the guidelines.
7. You are requested to send the child's aprons and table mats daily in their school bags from Monday, 02.07.2018. Parents who have missed to purchase the above said items along with school uniform are requested to buy the same during the holidays.
8. In order to further strengthen the security you are requested to check and ensure the credentials of the vehicle and the driver. The vehicle hired by you should conform to the provision of the Delhi Motor Vehicles Rules, 1993 and have a parent authorised person. Moreover, the related information must be intimated to the school. The undersigned shall be grateful if only safe vehicles having authorized LPG/CNG kits registered under DL-IK series are engaged by you for the transportation of children to the school.
9. You are requested to ensure that your ward attends the school regularly. In case of leave/long absence school must be intimated positively.

Wishing you a cheerful and learning time with kids.
